From sketches, fabrics and mood boards to accessories and completed garments, these holdings provide a deep well of inspiration for the brands' designers to draw on when developing new collections.

EST. FORM

Edition I: ART x FASHION

The line of work is the exploration of culture through observation, ART is a reflection of the human condition through observation, creation and evolution of culture, fashion takes on a different form here, existing somewhere between a communal, familiar space and a universe in which it can be admired from afar.

The world's greatest art is always a form where the artist's vision is not just a product of the world, but a part of it, a reflection of the world's culture, history and language.

When we see the world from the point of view of the artist, it is not just a reflection of the world, but a part of it, a reflection of the world's culture, history and language. The world's greatest art is always a form where the artist's vision is not just a product of the world, but a part of it, a reflection of the world's culture, history and language.

There is no one who is not a part of the world, it is not just a reflection of the world, but a part of it, a reflection of the world's culture, history and language.

The line between culture, history and art is not just a reflection of the world, but a part of it, a reflection of the world's culture, history and language.

"The line between where fashion ends and art begins is blurred."

"Fashion takes on a different form here, existing somewhere between a communal, familiar space and a universe in which it can be admired from afar."

- Sohni

ART X

This exhibit's purpose is to develop a forum where the public enters where form and process take precedence over all else when co-creation becomes a common language.

THE VISUAL STORY

"Here the art can live off the wall. It has been gently curated to exist in personal and private spaces through unspoken expression and storytelling. When the uncommon interact, the work sees us, rather than us viewing the work"

- Oona
